1.E- governance:: HRMS software has been installed for online salary,PF transfer.

2.College Website: Now-a-days the need for higher education institutions to have a reliable, effective and attractive web presence is increasing as online technology is becoming an important part of the educational process. The higher education institutions play a vital role in the development of a society while higher education websites have a lot of roles to fill. They need to provide information for prospective students , current students, parents of students, Faculty and alumni.

2.College App has been launched for information to the students.

3. Online examination; We follow guidelines framed by University of GourBanga, Malda, for the internal assessment of the theory and lab based practical classes. In addition, the institute has carefully designed and implemented the parallel mechanism to ensure students preparedness. Complete transparency is maintained in all forms of internal evaluations. A comprehensive academic schedule is prepared well in advance and displayed in the web-site and notice board for student's consciousness which includes, dates of various internal examinations such as Internal assessment, tutorial examination, test examinations, and practical examinations. The college conducts internal assessment examination (10 marks) and tutorial examination (8 marks) of each paper. Results are declared within one week. While setting the question paper all previous university exam papers are taken into consideration. After examination, the Subject handling faculty members evaluate their respective answer scripts and distributed evaluated answer scripts for discussion with students for upgradation and to maintain transparency in the evaluation. Students those who have obtained poor marks are coached well. Examination results are displayed on notice boards. Report of marks are maintained in an electronic format. In case of final examination, different Board of Studies, University of Gour Banga, Malda, set question papers. Sometimes external examiners, and sometimes Internal examiners evaluate answer scripts. After final examination result is declared, if any examinee is not satisfied with his or her performance, he or she can apply to the Controller of Examination, University of GourBanga, Malda, for scrutiny or reassessment. The Institute uploads notice sent by the controller of examinations, University of Gour Banga. Students
