

GOUR MAHAVIDYALAYA, MANGALBARI, MALDA

Human Values and Professional Ethics

7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens:

The vision of Gour Mahavidyalaya, Mangalbari, Malda, is to empower students through proper education and counseling so that they can act as conscious citizen of the country and contribute to the nation building.

India as a multilingual and multicultural country includes individuals with different backgrounds having cultural, social, economic, linguistic, and ethnic diversities governed and guided by the constitution irrespective of caste, religion, race and sex. The CBCS curriculum is framed with mandatory topics like ideology of Nationalism, professional ethics and human values, Indian Heritage, Constitution of India. IQAC has organized Special lecture/seminar on “Indian Culture and Values”. Bishakha Committee has invited academicians who delivered lecture on gender issues and women rights. The Department of Political Science, Gour Mahavidyalaya, Mangalbari, Malda has undertaken different initiatives by organizing various activities to sensitize students and employees to the constitutional obligations like values, rights, duties and responsibilities as the citizens of India. The Department of Political science has recently conducted a mock youth parliament debate in the campus. Those students as monitored by the teachers of the department participated in the Youth Parliament competition as organized by the Department of Parliamentary Affairs, Government of West Bengal and thus honored us by securing prestigious position in that competition. Students of the department of political science also organized exhibitions on Parliamentary affairs.

Details of activities that inculcate values necessary to render students to act as responsible citizens:
