WORLD ARABIC LANGUAGE DAY

unesco

The Arabic language is a pillar of the cultural diversity of humanity. It is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world, used daily by more than 400 million people. World Arabic Language Day is celebrated every year on 18 December since 2012. The date coincides with the day in 1973 that the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted Arabic as the sixth official language of the Organization.

Through this year's theme, "The Contribution of the Arabic Language to Human Civilization and Culture", UNESCO will shed a light on the numerous contributions of Arabic to humanity's cultural and linguistic diversity, as well as to knowledge production. A pillar of humanity's shared values, Arabic is a language that brings together people from various cultural,
