Professor Taraknath Adhikari, RabindraBharati University,Sanskrit,Kolkata,West Bengal, delivered a lecture on “ Indian culture and Values” on 17.08.2020 from 12 noon to 2 P.M.( Offline). Dr.Tarak Nath Adhikari discussed the main features of Indian culture and values as it reflected in the Vedas, Sanhitas, the Ramayana, the Mahabharata, and speeches of Swami Vivekananda.

Remembering Jalianwala Bagh Massacre,1919:29.08.2019:

The Chief Guest of the evening was the eminent historian Prof. Rajsekhar Basu, University of Calcutta, Kolkata, West Bengal, who delivered the keynote address delineating the socio-political context behind the heinous act of British atrocity. From Rowlatt Act and Gandhi’s agitation to Satyapal’s deportation and the psychology of Dyer’s mind all came under his scrutiny. He concluded his speech with some translations of songs about Jallianwala Bagh Massacre. The session was chaired by Dr.Ashim Kumar sarkar,Principal,Gour Mahavidyalaya.

Low Carbon Lifestyle:30.08.2019: Dr. Somnath Halder,Assistant Professor in Geography,Kaliachak College, Malda, pointed out,” Economic growth has come with critical environmental challenges – air pollution, plastic waste and greenhouse gas emissions. However, there are signs of hope – Asia is a dynamic hub for innovation and startups. The high profile of marine litter, and climate change has sparked interest among consumers to adopt more sustainable lifestyles. Therefore, we will support young entrepreneurs to develop innovative, scalable startups that enable circular economy through low carbon, low waste business models for Asian consumers”.
